In the evening on July 22, 2010 a female sex worker was picked up by a male who looked like he was in his early 20's (around 22 years old). He was about 5'9", with a thin build. He had dark brown hair shaved to a buzz cut, dark brown eyes, and a long nose and looked like his ethnicity was Italian. He had looked very clean-cut, was a "pretty boy" type wearing stylish clothing. He was driving an older style long box pick-up truck. It was brown with a faux wood panel trim around the middle.

Description of What Happened:

The man drove the woman to the outskirts of town on the south end of Red Deer. He had been doing cocaine and asked the sex worker if she could drive. As she opened the passenger door the man unexpectedly attacked her from behind, with no provocation. As she turned her head back towards him he back-handed her, splitting her lip open. He continued to beat her in the backseat of the car until she hooked her leg around the steering wheel to honk the horn. He took her purse and then pushed her out the passenger side of the car and drove away. He did not rape her and there had been no mention of sex during their interaction, but he was extremely violent and if she had not been able to honk the horn she feels like she would have been much worse off.

On May 13 early in the morning, a heavy set white male about 50 years old and approximately 5'7" tall, with short white and gray hair and a white moustache, sexually assaulted a female sex worker in a back alley in downtown Red Deer. The man was driving a white panel van in good shape, with no windows in the back and no back seat – just a mattress.

Description of What Happened:

He picked her up by the downtown McDonalds. They drove to an alley downtown and made an agreement for sex in the back of his van. While in the act, he started to strangle her. She tried to fight back but was too small. He strangled her to the point where she was on the verge of blacking out. This continued for about 15 minutes. When he finished, he strangled her till she blacked out completely. When she woke up later he was raping her anally. She's not sure how long she was out for or how long she was raped. He had her face down in the mattress. It felt like he was trying to smother her by holding the back of her head, but she didn't black out this time. Eventually it ended. He threw her out of the van into the alley onto some gravel. He got out of the van and either punched or kicked her in the head. She pretended to be unconscious. Then he left and drove away.
